THE ARTFUL CROW

The Brush & Ink Watercolor Paintings of Endre Penovác

Inquisitive and often mischievous, crows are clever toolmakers that learn from one another. Research shows that crows fashion twigs into spears and hooks to access food and use road traffic to crack tough nuts. These intelligent birds also recognize individual humans and act differently around people they are familiar with—sometimes even leaving gifts for those who feed them. Endre Penovác captures the antics of these intelligent tricksters in his gracefully abstract yet detailed portraits of corvids at play or monitoring the world for delightful opportunities.

Watercolor is quite different from other painting mediums. As hard as one might try to plan an outcome, the result is ever-changing, making each piece unique. Endre's paintings invite viewers to see the poetry in the line and the skill of each stroke. His distinctive technique has spurred international demand for his workshops and for installations of his work in private collections around the world.

EMPOWER

Featuring Art by Lolita Lorenzo

Carol Muthiga-Oyekunle, also known as Lolita Lorenzo, is a Kenyan American artist whose stunning portraits radiate power and beauty. She conceived an intergalactic Afrofuturistic time-traveling woman warrior as an homage to courageous African women who craft textiles to support their families. The patterns and vibrant colors became part of her design aesthetic, and the weavers' perseverance showed her that empowered women can change the world. This collection of portraits depicts strong women in a fashion editorial context, drawing on organic forms to create their fantastical body armor couture.

Carol's designs are inspired by subjects dear to her soul: Kenyan American culture, African fractals, Agĩkuyu cosmology, history, geometry, numerology, and the magnificence of the cosmos. Her bold pieces symbolize women everywhere—those quintessential superheroes standing in their wisdom and power.

SPACESHIP EARTH

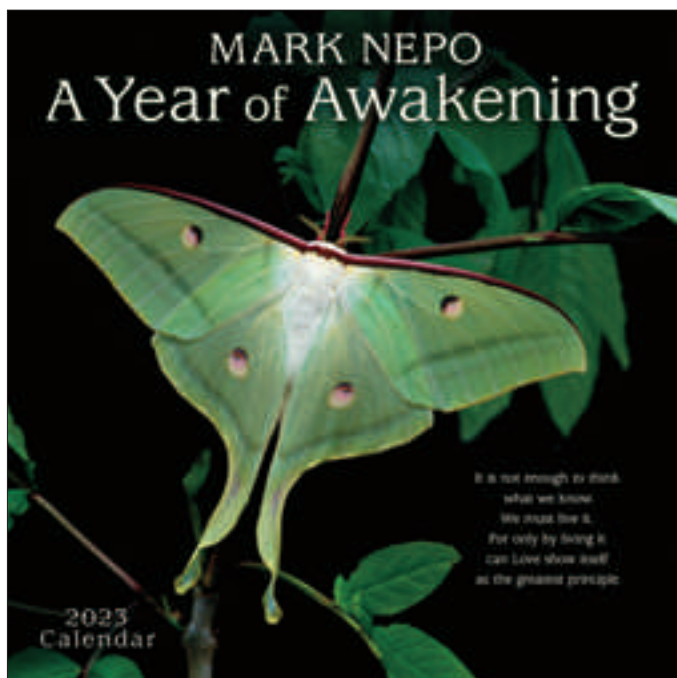

The Overview Effect

We are excited to partner with space philosopher Frank White and Multiverse Publishing to create this breathtaking calendar. In his bestselling book The Overview Effect: Space Exploration and Human Evolution, White explores the cognitive shift astronauts experience while in space. With sudden clarity, they understand that Earth—home to everyone and everything we have ever known—is a pulsing, fragile, living place.

From hundreds of interviews with space travelers, White has curated powerful and enlightening quotes. By pairing these words with photos from the NASA archives, we hope to reveal that the luminous vision of Earth from space shows one human family and a planet—a natural spaceship—without the scars of boundaries.

FIREWEED

By Anahata Joy

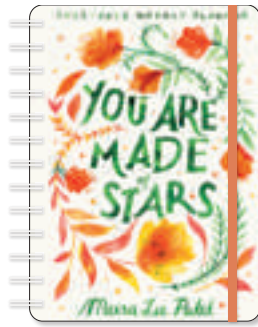

FIREWEED is a celebration of the botanical matrix. Through the art of pressing and drying, flower and plant specimens are lovingly suspended in time. Drawing inspiration from the Victorian-era art form and the 1970s craft movement, this colorful collection by Anahata Joy is a modern-day interpretative revival of a centuries-old tradition.

Anahata's distinctive aesthetic and lifestyle brand, PAPAYA, has been celebrated around the globe since 2003. Its sister brand, FIREWEED, is a nod to simpler times and botanical nostalgia. Anahata's inspirations flow from childhood memories of fireweed and clovers drying under heavy books, sunlit pressed flowers, and stained-glass reflections from the windows of her family's cabin in Alaska.

HEBREW ILLUMINATIONS

A 16-Month Jewish Calendar by Adam Rhine / 5782–5784

The ancient and enduring spirit of Jewish tradition comes alive in the Hebrew Illuminations wall calendar. Artist Adam Rhine's ornate Judaic paintings combine modern palettes and aesthetics with the influence of medieval illuminated manuscripts. Each work is crafted to glorify the infinite nobility of the Lord and to visually bring forth His energy within different combinations and complex patterns.

During the chaos of 2020, the Hebrew prophet Isaiah's words, "Kumi Uri (Arise! Shine!)," echoed in Adam's mind. His search for other words of uplifting strength in Jewish scripture unleashed a burst of artistic energy, resulting in paintings meant to inspire confidence and faith in us all.

THE ARTFUL CAT

The Brush & Ink Watercolor Paintings of Endre Penovác

"Spellbinding," "bewitching," and "ghostly" barely begin to describe Endre Penovác's otherworldly cats. Each one is rendered in the artist's distinctive watercolor-and-ink technique with a unique fadeaway style that has garnered him international renown.

Endre's paintings are an act of faith and magic. Like these elusive cats, watercolor is a difficult medium to wrangle, but by diluting pigments with water to create tiny rivers of monochromatic tones, Endre instinctively strokes these furry forms into shape, giving his mysterious felines a haunting life of their own, even as they seem to be vanishing before our eyes.
