SIDELWARD PLANK POSE

If you were capable of holding that last pose, great job! This pose is similar to that one because you need to focus on your breath while your body works hard to balance.

Try it with me! From Plank Pose, slowly rotate to the right side, observe the Jurassic world around you, and smile a big smile! Try keeping your balance by supporting yourself with your right hand and the outer part of your right foot. Your body must be strong and straight as a rod, your head and your gaze rotate towards your left hand, which is raised to the sky. You'll be able to overcome the fatigue caused by this pose by concentrating on the rhythm of your breath.

1 IN PLANK POSE, RAISE YOUR LEFT ARM AND ROTATE TO THE RIGHT SIDE SO THAT YOUR CHEST IS FACING FORWARD. THE EXTERNAL SIDE OF YOUR RIGHT FOOT MUST BE FIRMLY ON THE GROUND. WITH YOUR LEFT FOOT RESTING ON TOP OF IT.

2 KEEP YOUR BALANCE AND THEN EXTEND YOUR ARM TO A VERTICAL POSITION.

3 TURN YOUR GAZE TOWARDS YOUR RAISED HAND. THEN, REPEAT ON THE OTHER SIDE, ONCE MORE PASSING THROUGH PLANK POSE.

EXTENDED HAND TO BIG TOE POSE

My first flight was so scary! I was terrified and thought, "What if I wasn't good enough? What if all the friends who had come to see my flying debut had laughed at me?" Thanks to his long neck, Master Digby reached over to me and whispered, "I will teach you to spread your wings without being afraid of falling." And he was right! So, trust me, I know what it's like to be scared, but together we can overcome fear.

Standing up, shift your weight onto your left foot and grab your right foot with your right hand. Rotate your right hip and stretch your leg to the side while balancing on your left foot. Try to fully extend your knee without falling. The secret is to extend your leg as much as you can without overdoing it... and don't be in a hurry! Remember to focus your attention and your gaze on a specific point right in front of you.

1 STANDING UP, GRAB YOUR RIGHT FOOT IN YOUR RIGHT HAND, BRINGING YOUR KNEE UP CLOSE TO YOUR CHEST.

2 ROTATE YOUR RIGHT HIP OUTWARD, KEEPING YOUR BALANCE ON YOUR LEFT FOOT.

3 SLOWLY EXTEND YOUR RIGHT KNEE OUTWARD, KEEPING GRASP OF YOUR FOOT. THEN, REPEAT ON THE OTHER SIDE.

We love spotting rainbows after rain showers! Bring that joy to the dining room table with this quick craft.

Around these parts, we go glow-up rainbow! Whaling outside after a good spring soaking and discovering that tapestry of splendor in the sky never ceases to amaze us. And for as much as this big gift would love to actually hold the big pot of good treasure at the end of those beautiful fangs (fables paid-off tails, I see you in my dreams), I have to admit that experiencing the excitement swirling out of my kiddos every time they see a pretty rainbow among the clouds is most definitely worth its weight in gold. And honestly, if those moments of awe and amazement in their little eyes are not a treasure to behold, I have no idea don't know what I. I guess that explains why rainbows are associated with happiness and hope. Right? The colors join in an arch of proof that miracles can happen, even after a storm. Those primary colors all lined up just the right way screams pure joy to my 100-child, rainbow-lover heart! And

And what could be better than enjoying all the bright and showy colors of the rainbow outside? Enjoying the bright and showy colors of the rainbow inside on your family table, I count! This rainbow centerpiece will bring all sorts of happy-go-lucky feelings into your home. Oh, and before you me, the fact that the entirety of this RGV-G-B-V accessories can be created in less than ten minutes, using our supplies you probably already have lying around (or can easily pick up at the drugstore when the corner), is nothing more than magical crafting at work, friends.

This makes a great gift to bring some cheer to the table when someone invites your family over!
